Our Attention Shifts to the Fall Classic In Florida for the Next 2 Weeks

Plenty of Adult Baseball Left to be Played as Teams Head to the Sunshine State
By Tom Prendergast

After 3 jam packed weeks of MSBL baseball in Arizona the action shifts to Florida and the Fall Classic. More than a thousand games were played in the 2025 MSBL World Series. The weather was never better than it was the last three weeks. All of the rain came before our WS games started and afterwards the fields never looked better. Our 38th year in the Valley of the Sun was outstanding on several different levels. Probably the main reason players attend the MSBL WS is for the competition and to squeeze in another week of games on fantastic fields. MLB spring training facilities help make part of that a reality. But the competition part starts and ends with the individual leagues across the country. It's a safe bet that you need to bring you're a game in Arizona.
